Defining Awesome

"For WHO HAS KNOWN THE MIND OF THE LORD, THAT HE WILL INSTRUCT HIM? But we have the mind of Christ." 1 Cor. 2:16.

In Isaiah 6, a young Isaiah is vexed over the death of the great king Uzziah. Not a perfect king, in fact by Uzziah's own insolence, he died a leper. But Uzziah was a king admired by all of Judah. Now who will guide God's people? At this point, young Isaiah receives a vision, a terrifying vision of the awesome nature of God. God's train of his robe alone fills the temple along with smoke. Two terrifying Seraphim proclaim the awesome nature of God in such a way that even the foundation of the temple trembles. This is just one of many varied descriptions of the awesome nature of our God, our Lord, Our only king.

We today live in a culture that discounts or dismissed the awesome God Isaiah experienced. We prefer a god that we can manipulate or even ignore and feel that God must negotiate with our whims and wants. We have mistaken the loving God with a god that submits to us and our standards.

Here recently, the world turned out to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus.

During the winter solstice, the world will again celebrates the baby Jesus. These are powerful truths, yet they only tell a fraction of the story. Isaiah's God is also truth, as is the God of Revelation who through Christ will judge the world with justice.

As difficult as it may be to comprehend, God is just, judge, loving and merciful. Yet it is God who as Lord dictates the terms of hope or hopelessness. Consider Romans 11:22: "Behold then the kindness and severity of God; to those who fell, severity, but to you, God's kindness, if you continue in His kindness; otherwise you also will be cut off." Rom. 11:22.

This is the God Isaiah saw in his vision. I hope it is the God you also embrace. Not one that can be manipulated or defined by our wants and wishes. When Isaiah saw this vision, he trembled. I feel most believers have forgotten how to tremble. But understanding God's nature, Isaiah adored and embraced with his heart and soul to serve such a God. Isaiah learned that it is not men who save or rescue but God alone. As such he spent his life in service to God under the rule of four kings (five if you count Manasseh). It was difficult beyond imagination but worth every moment.

When we truly learn to define God as awesome as Isaiah did, no greater gift can we receive than service to the King of kings and Lord of Lords. God is more than we imagine or know. Daily learn more and seek more and serve more. Never limit God to your wants but allow God to take away all of your limits of faith and give you a life few will ever find. Adore the baby, the crucified, the resurrected and adore the ultimate judge. To Him be glory forever in the church.

Defining Awesome

"For WHO HAS KNOWN THE MIND OF THE LORD, THAT HE WILL INSTRUCT HIM? But we have the mind of Christ." ^{1 Cor. 2:16.}

In Isaiah 6, a young Isaiah is vexed over the death of the great king Uzziah. Not a perfect king, in fact by Uzziah's own insolence, he died a leper. But Uzziah was a king admired by all of Judah. Now who will guide God's people? At this point, young Isaiah receives a vision, a terrifying vision of the awesome nature of God. God's train of his robe alone fills the temple along with smoke. Two terrifying Seraphim proclaim the awesome nature of God in such a way that even the foundation of the temple trembles. This is just one of many varied descriptions of the awesome nature of our God, our Lord, Our only king.

We today live in a culture that discounts or dismissed the awesome God Isaiah experienced. We prefer a god that we can manipulate or even ignore and feel that God must negotiate with our whims and wants. We have mistaken the loving God with a god that submits to us and our standards.

Here recently, the world turned out to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus.

During the winter solstice, the world will again celebrates the baby Jesus. These are powerful truths, yet they only tell a fraction of the story. Isaiah's God is also truth, as is the God of Revelation who through Christ will judge the world with justice.

As difficult as it may be to comprehend, God is just, judge, loving and merciful. Yet it is God who as Lord dictates the terms of hope or hopelessness. Consider Romans 11:22: "Behold then the kindness and severity of God; to those who fell, severity, but to you, God's kindness, if you continue in His kindness; otherwise you also will be cut off." ^{Rom. 11:22.}

This is the God Isaiah saw in his vision. I hope it is the God you also embrace. Not one that can be manipulated or defined by our wants and wishes. When Isaiah saw this vision, he trembled. I feel most believers have forgotten how to tremble. But understanding God's nature, Isaiah adored and embraced with his heart and soul to serve such a God. Isaiah learned that it is not men who save or rescue but God alone. As such he spent his life in service to God under the rule of four kings (five if you count Manasseh). It was difficult beyond imagination but worth every moment.

When we truly learn to define God as awesome as Isaiah did, no greater gift can we receive than service to the King of kings and Lord of Lords. God is more than we imagine or know. Daily learn more and seek more and serve more. Never limit God to your wants but allow God to take away all of your limits of faith and give you a life few will ever find. Adore the baby, the crucified, the resurrected and adore the ultimate judge. To Him be glory forever in the church.

Defining Awesome

"For WHO HAS KNOWN THE MIND OF THE LORD, THAT HE WILL INSTRUCT HIM? But we have the mind of Christ." ¹ Cor. 2:16.

In Isaiah 6, a young Isaiah is vexed over the death of the great king Uzziah. Not a perfect king, in fact by Uzziah's own insolence, he died a leper. But Uzziah was a king admired by all of Judah. Now who will guide God's people? At this point, young Isaiah receives a vision, a terrifying vision of the awesome nature of God. God's train of his robe alone fills the temple along with smoke. Two terrifying Seraphim proclaim the awesome nature of God in such a way that even the foundation of the temple trembles. This is just one of many varied descriptions of the awesome nature of our God, our Lord, Our only king.

We today live in a culture that discounts or dismissed the awesome God Isaiah experienced. We prefer a god that we can manipulate or even ignore and feel that God must negotiate with our whims and wants. We have mistaken the loving God with a god that submits to us and our standards.

Here recently, the world turned out to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus.

During the winter solstice, the world will again celebrates the baby Jesus. These are powerful truths, yet they only tell a fraction of the story. Isaiah's God is also truth, as is the God of Revelation who through Christ will judge the world with justice.

As difficult as it may be to comprehend, God is just, judge, loving and merciful. Yet it is God who as Lord dictates the terms of hope or hopelessness. Consider Romans 11:22: "Behold then the kindness and severity of God; to those who fell, severity, but to you, God's kindness, if you continue in His kindness; otherwise you also will be cut off." ^{Rom. 11:22.}

This is the God Isaiah saw in his vision. I hope it is the God you also embrace. Not one that can be manipulated or defined by our wants and wishes. When Isaiah saw this vision, he trembled. I feel most believers have forgotten how to tremble. But understanding God's nature, Isaiah adored and embraced with his heart and soul to serve such a God. Isaiah learned that it is not men who save or rescue but God alone. As such he spent his life in service to God under the rule of four kings (five if you count Manasseh). It was difficult beyond imagination but worth every moment.

When we truly learn to define God as awesome as Isaiah did, no greater gift can we receive than service to the King of kings and Lord of Lords. God is more than we imagine or know. Daily learn more and seek more and serve more. Never limit God to your wants but allow God to take away all of your limits of faith and give you a life few will ever find. Adore the baby, the crucified, the resurrected and adore the ultimate judge. To Him be glory forever in the church.

Defining Awesome

"For WHO HAS KNOWN THE MIND OF THE LORD, THAT HE WILL INSTRUCT HIM? But we have the mind of Christ." ¹ Cor. 2:16.

In Isaiah 6, a young Isaiah is vexed over the death of the great king Uzziah. Not a perfect king, in fact by Uzziah's own insolence, he died a leper. But Uzziah was a king admired by all of Judah. Now who will guide God's people? At this point, young Isaiah receives a vision, a terrifying vision of the awesome nature of God. God's train of his robe alone fills the temple along with smoke. Two terrifying Seraphim proclaim the awesome nature of God in such a way that even the foundation of the temple trembles. This is just one of many varied descriptions of the awesome nature of our God, our Lord, Our only king.

We today live in a culture that discounts or dismissed the awesome God Isaiah experienced. We prefer a god that we can manipulate or even ignore and feel that God must negotiate with our whims and wants. We have mistaken the loving God with a god that submits to us and our standards.

Here recently, the world turned out to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus.

During the winter solstice, the world will again celebrates the baby Jesus. These are powerful truths, yet they only tell a fraction of the story. Isaiah's God is also truth, as is the God of Revelation who through Christ will judge the world with justice.

As difficult as it may be to comprehend, God is just, judge, loving and merciful. Yet it is God who as Lord dictates the terms of hope or hopelessness. Consider Romans 11:22: "Behold then the kindness and severity of God; to those who fell, severity, but to you, God's kindness, if you continue in His kindness; otherwise you also will be cut off." ^{Rom. 11:22.}

This is the God Isaiah saw in his vision. I hope it is the God you also embrace. Not one that can be manipulated or defined by our wants and wishes. When Isaiah saw this vision, he trembled. I feel most believers have forgotten how to tremble. But understanding God's nature, Isaiah adored and embraced with his heart and soul to serve such a God. Isaiah learned that it is not men who save or rescue but God alone. As such he spent his life in service to God under the rule of four kings (five if you count Manasseh). It was difficult beyond imagination but worth every moment.

When we truly learn to define God as awesome as Isaiah did, no greater gift can we receive than service to the King of kings and Lord of Lords. God is more than we imagine or know. Daily learn more and seek more and serve more.

Never limit God to your wants but allow God to take away all of your limits of faith and give you a life few will ever find. Adore the baby, the crucified, the resurrected and adore the ultimate judge. To Him be glory forever in the church.

"For WHO HAS KNOWN THE MIND OF THE LORD, THAT HE WILL INSTRUCT HIM? But we have the mind of Christ." 1 Cor. 2:16.

In Isaiah 6, a young Isaiah is vexed over the death of the great king Uzziah. Not a perfect king, in fact by Uzziah's own insolence, he died a leper. But Uzziah was a king admired by all of Judah. Now who will guide God's people? At this point, young Isaiah receives a vision, a terrifying vision of the awesome nature of God. God's train of his robe alone fills the temple along with smoke. Two terrifying Seraphim proclaim the awesome nature of God in such a way that even the foundation of the temple trembles. This is just one of many varied descriptions of the awesome nature of our God, our Lord, Our only king.

We today live in a culture that discounts or dismissed the awesome God Isaiah experienced. We prefer a god that we can manipulate or even ignore and feel that God must negotiate with our whims and wants. We have mistaken the loving God with a god that submits to us and our standards.

Here recently, the world turned out to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus.

During the winter solstice, the world will again celebrates the baby Jesus. These are powerful truths, yet they only tell a fraction of the story. Isaiah's God is also truth, as is the God of Revelation who through Christ will judge the world with justice.

As difficult as it may be to comprehend, God is just, judge, loving and merciful. Yet it is God who as Lord dictates the terms of hope or hopelessness. Consider Romans 11:22: "Behold then the kindness and severity of God; to those who fell, severity, but to you, God's kindness, if you continue in His kindness; otherwise you also will be cut off." Rom. 11:22.

This is the God Isaiah saw in his vision. I hope it is the God you also embrace. Not one that can be manipulated or defined by our wants and wishes. When Isaiah saw this vision, he trembled. I feel most believers have forgotten how to tremble. But understanding God's nature, Isaiah adored and embraced with his heart and soul to serve such a God. Isaiah learned that it is not men who save or rescue but God alone. As such he spent his life in service to God under the rule of four kings (five if you count Manasseh). It was difficult beyond imagination but worth every moment.

When we truly learn to define God as awesome as Isaiah did, no greater gift can we receive than service to the King of kings and Lord of Lords. God is more than we imagine or know. Daily learn more and seek more and serve more. Never limit God to your wants but allow God to take away all of your limits of faith and give you a life few will ever find. Adore the baby, the crucified, the resurrected and adore the ultimate judge. To Him be glory forever in the church.

"For WHO HAS KNOWN THE MIND OF THE LORD, THAT HE WILL INSTRUCT HIM? But we have the mind of Christ." ^{1 Cor. 2:16.}

In Isaiah 6, a young Isaiah is vexed over the death of the great king Uzziah. Not a perfect king, in fact by Uzziah's own insolence, he died a leper. But Uzziah was a king admired by all of Judah. Now who will guide God's people? At this point, young Isaiah receives a vision, a terrifying vision of the awesome nature of God. God's train of his robe alone fills the temple along with smoke. Two terrifying Seraphim proclaim the awesome nature of God in such a way that even the foundation of the temple trembles. This is just one of many varied descriptions of the awesome nature of our God, our Lord, Our only king.

We today live in a culture that discounts or dismissed the awesome God Isaiah experienced. We prefer a god that we can manipulate or even ignore and feel that God must negotiate with our whims and wants. We have mistaken the loving God with a god that submits to us and our standards.

Here recently, the world turned out to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus.

During the winter solstice, the world will again celebrates the baby Jesus. These are powerful truths, yet they only tell a fraction of the story. Isaiah's God is also truth, as is the God of Revelation who through Christ will judge the world with justice.

As difficult as it may be to comprehend, God is just, judge, loving and merciful. Yet it is God who as Lord dictates the terms of hope or hopelessness. Consider Romans 11:22: "Behold then the kindness and severity of God; to those who fell, severity, but to you, God's kindness, if you continue in His kindness; otherwise you also will be cut off." ^{Rom. 11:22.}

This is the God Isaiah saw in his vision. I hope it is the God you also embrace. Not one that can be manipulated or defined by our wants and wishes. When Isaiah saw this vision, he trembled. I feel most believers have forgotten how to tremble. But understanding God's nature, Isaiah adored and embraced with his heart and soul to serve such a God. Isaiah learned that it is not men who save or rescue but God alone. As such he spent his life in service to God under the rule of four kings (five if you count Manasseh). It was difficult beyond imagination but worth every moment.

When we truly learn to define God as awesome as Isaiah did, no greater gift can we receive than service to the King of kings and Lord of Lords. God is more than we imagine or know. Daily learn more and seek more and serve more. Never limit God to your wants but allow God to take away all of your limits of faith and give you a life few will ever find. Adore the baby, the crucified, the resurrected and adore the ultimate judge. To Him be glory forever in the church.

"For WHO HAS KNOWN THE MIND OF THE LORD, THAT HE WILL INSTRUCT HIM? But we have the mind of Christ." ^{1 Cor. 2:16.}

In Isaiah 6, a young Isaiah is vexed over the death of the great king Uzziah. Not a perfect king, in fact by Uzziah's own insolence, he died a leper. But Uzziah was a king admired by all of Judah. Now who will guide God's people? At this point, young Isaiah receives a vision, a terrifying vision of the awesome nature of God. God's train of his robe alone fills the temple along with smoke. Two terrifying Seraphim proclaim the awesome nature of God in such a way that even the foundation of the temple trembles. This is just one of many varied descriptions of the awesome nature of our God, our Lord, Our only king.

We today live in a culture that discounts or dismissed the awesome God Isaiah experienced. We prefer a god that we can manipulate or even ignore and feel that God must negotiate with our whims and wants. We have mistaken the loving God with a god that submits to us and our standards.

Here recently, the world turned out to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus.

During the winter solstice, the world will again celebrates the baby Jesus. These are powerful truths, yet they only tell a fraction of the story. Isaiah's God is also truth, as is the God of Revelation who through Christ will judge the world with justice.

As difficult as it may be to comprehend, God is just, judge, loving and merciful. Yet it is God who as Lord dictates the terms of hope or hopelessness. Consider Romans 11:22: "Behold then the kindness and severity of God; to those who fell, severity, but to you, God's kindness, if you continue in His kindness; otherwise you also will be cut off." ^{Rom. 11:22.}

This is the God Isaiah saw in his vision. I hope it is the God you also embrace. Not one that can be manipulated or defined by our wants and wishes. When Isaiah saw this vision, he trembled. I feel most believers have forgotten how to tremble. But understanding God's nature, Isaiah adored and embraced with his heart and soul to serve such a God. Isaiah learned that it is not men who save or rescue but God alone. As such he spent his life in service to God under the rule of four kings (five if you count Manasseh). It was difficult beyond imagination but worth every moment.

When we truly learn to define God as awesome as Isaiah did, no greater gift can we receive than service to the King of kings and Lord of Lords. God is more than we imagine or know. Daily learn more and seek more and serve more. Never limit God to your wants but allow God to take away all of your limits of faith and give you a life few will ever find. Adore the baby, the crucified, the resurrected and adore the ultimate judge. To Him be glory forever in the church.

"For WHO HAS KNOWN THE MIND OF THE LORD, THAT HE WILL INSTRUCT HIM? But we have the mind of Christ." ^{1 Cor. 2:16.}

In Isaiah 6, a young Isaiah is vexed over the death of the great king Uzziah. Not a perfect king, in fact by Uzziah's own insolence, he died a leper. But Uzziah was a king admired by all of Judah. Now who will guide God's people? At this point, young Isaiah receives a vision, a terrifying vision of the awesome nature of God. God's train of his robe alone fills the temple along with smoke. Two terrifying Seraphim proclaim the awesome nature of God in such a way that even the foundation of the temple trembles. This is just one of many varied descriptions of the awesome nature of our God, our Lord, Our only king.

We today live in a culture that discounts or dismissed the awesome God Isaiah experienced. We prefer a god that we can manipulate or even ignore and feel that God must negotiate with our whims and wants. We have mistaken the loving God with a god that submits to us and our standards.

Here recently, the world turned out to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus.

During the winter solstice, the world will again celebrates the baby Jesus. These are powerful truths, yet they only tell a fraction of the story. Isaiah's God is also truth, as is the God of Revelation who through Christ will judge the world with justice.

As difficult as it may be to comprehend, God is just, judge, loving and merciful. Yet it is God who as Lord dictates the terms of hope or hopelessness. Consider Romans 11:22: "Behold then the kindness and severity of God; to those who fell, severity, but to you, God's kindness, if you continue in His kindness; otherwise you also will be cut off." ^{Rom. 11:22.}

This is the God Isaiah saw in his vision. I hope it is the God you also embrace. Not one that can be manipulated or defined by our wants and wishes. When Isaiah saw this vision, he trembled. I feel most believers have forgotten how to tremble. But understanding God's nature, Isaiah adored and embraced with his heart and soul to serve such a God. Isaiah learned that it is not men who save or rescue but God alone. As such he spent his life in service to God under the rule of four kings (five if you count Manasseh). It was difficult beyond imagination but worth every moment.

When we truly learn to define God as awesome as Isaiah did, no greater gift can we receive than service to the King of kings and Lord of Lords. God is more than we imagine or know. Daily learn more and seek more and serve more. Never limit God to your wants but allow God to take away all of your limits of faith and give you a life few will ever find. Adore the baby, the crucified, the resurrected and adore the ultimate judge. To Him be glory forever in the church.

"For WHO HAS KNOWN THE MIND OF THE LORD, THAT HE WILL INSTRUCT HIM? But we have the mind of Christ." ^{1 Cor. 2:16.}

In Isaiah 6, a young Isaiah is vexed over the death of the great king Uzziah. Not a perfect king, in fact by Uzziah's own insolence, he died a leper. But Uzziah was a king admired by all of Judah. Now who will guide God's people? At this point, young Isaiah receives a vision, a terrifying vision of the awesome nature of God. God's train of his robe alone fills the temple along with smoke. Two terrifying Seraphim proclaim the awesome nature of God in such a way that even the foundation of the temple trembles. This is just one of many varied descriptions of the awesome nature of our God, our Lord, Our only king.

We today live in a culture that discounts or dismissed the awesome God Isaiah experienced. We prefer a god that we can manipulate or even ignore and feel that God must negotiate with our whims and wants. We have mistaken the loving God with a god that submits to us and our standards.

Here recently, the world turned out to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus.

During the winter solstice, the world will again celebrates the baby Jesus. These are powerful truths, yet they only tell a fraction of the story. Isaiah's God is also truth, as is the God of Revelation who through Christ will judge the world with justice.

As difficult as it may be to comprehend, God is just, judge, loving and merciful. Yet it is God who as Lord dictates the terms of hope or hopelessness. Consider Romans 11:22: "Behold then the kindness and severity of God; to those who fell, severity, but to you, God's kindness, if you continue in His kindness; otherwise you also will be cut off." ^{Rom. 11:22.}

This is the God Isaiah saw in his vision. I hope it is the God you also embrace. Not one that can be manipulated or defined by our wants and wishes. When Isaiah saw this vision, he trembled. I feel most believers have forgotten how to tremble. But understanding God's nature, Isaiah adored and embraced with his heart and soul to serve such a God. Isaiah learned that it is not men who save or rescue but God alone. As such he spent his life in service to God under the rule of four kings (five if you count Manasseh). It was difficult beyond imagination but worth every moment.

When we truly learn to define God as awesome as Isaiah did, no greater gift can we receive than service to the King of kings and Lord of Lords. God is more than we imagine or know. Daily learn more and seek more and serve more. Never limit God to your wants but allow God to take away all of your limits of faith and give you a life few will ever find. Adore the baby, the crucified, the resurrected and adore the ultimate judge. To Him be glory forever in the church.

"For WHO HAS KNOWN THE MIND OF THE LORD, THAT HE WILL INSTRUCT HIM? But we have the mind of Christ." 1 Cor. 2:16.

In Isaiah 6, a young Isaiah is vexed over the death of the great king Uzziah. Not a perfect king, in fact by Uzziah's own insolence, he died a leper. But Uzziah was a king admired by all of Judah. Now who will guide God's people? At this point, young Isaiah receives a vision, a terrifying vision of the awesome nature of God. God's train of his robe alone fills the temple along with smoke. Two terrifying Seraphim proclaim the awesome nature of God in such a way that even the foundation of the temple trembles. This is just one of many varied descriptions of the awesome nature of our God, our Lord, Our only king.

We today live in a culture that discounts or dismissed the awesome God Isaiah experienced. We prefer a god that we can manipulate or even ignore and feel that God must negotiate with our whims and wants. We have mistaken the loving God with a god that submits to us and our standards.

Here recently, the world turned out to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus.

During the winter solstice, the world will again celebrates the baby Jesus. These are powerful truths, yet they only tell a fraction of the story. Isaiah's God is also truth, as is the God of Revelation who through Christ will judge the world with justice.

As difficult as it may be to comprehend, God is just, judge, loving and merciful. Yet it is God who as Lord dictates the terms of hope or hopelessness. Consider Romans 11:22: "Behold then the kindness and severity of God; to those who fell, severity, but to you, God's kindness, if you continue in His kindness; otherwise you also will be cut off." Rom. 11:22.

This is the God Isaiah saw in his vision. I hope it is the God you also embrace. Not one that can be manipulated or defined by our wants and wishes. When Isaiah saw this vision, he trembled. I feel most believers have forgotten how to tremble. But understanding God's nature, Isaiah adored and embraced with his heart and soul to serve such a God. Isaiah learned that it is not men who save or rescue but God alone. As such he spent his life in service to God under the rule of four kings (five if you count Manasseh). It was difficult beyond imagination but worth every moment.

When we truly learn to define God as awesome as Isaiah did, no greater gift can we receive than service to the King of kings and Lord of Lords. God is more than we imagine or know. Daily learn more and seek more and serve more. Never limit God to your wants but allow God to take away all of your limits of faith and give you a life few will ever find. Adore the baby, the crucified, the resurrected and adore the ultimate judge. To Him be glory forever in the church.
